

FinTech at Cornell and the Tech Policy Institute present

Cornell Convenes: Toward a New Bretton Woods

Cosmos Club | 2121 Massachusetts Ave NW | Washington, D.C.

April 18, 2023 | 8:30am - 12:00pm

Objective: A gathering of leaders in industry, academia, and regulatory worlds.

Chatham House Rule

Program Agenda:

- I. The Future of Money: Government and Private Systems
 - A. CBDCs and Private Monies
 - 1) CBDCs, Two-Tier Banking Systems, Private Monies, and Monetary Policy
 - 2) Potential Disruption to the Financial System
 - B. A Complicated Space
 - 1) Supporting Different Opinions and Approaches in Digital Frameworks
- II. Balancing Surveillance and Privacy in Digital Frameworks
 - A. Surveillance, Disclosure, and Privacy in Digital Framework
 - B. Exploring Key Management and Ownership in Digital Transactions
- III. Break
- IV. Technical Considerations for Digital Frameworks
 - A. Digital Identity and Zero-Knowledge Proofs
 - B. Smart Contracts, Self-Regulated Groups, and Ecosystem Health
- V. Digital Wallets and the Future of Payments
 - A. Right to Transact and Considerations for Communities without Broadband
- VI. Ensuring Security and Trust in Digital Asset Transactions
 - A. Forensics, Disclosures, and Data Breaches, Bad Actors in Digital Assets
- VII. Wrap-Up

Thank you to our generous sponsors

Broadridge[®]

This page is intentionally left blank.

